

Premium Pro

Allocator Agent - POS Verified Risk Location System

Allocator Agent is a web-based policy solution specifically designed to allow insurance companies to more accurately pinpoint policy locations in real-time, and to assign the correct premium tax rates to each policy at the point of sale.

Allocator Agent can be quickly and easily integrated into your company's existing website or policy/agent management system. With a few lines of code, any insurance company can immediately begin to take advantage of TriTech's time-tested & industry proven experience in the field of Premium Tax.

Key Features:

- Single location updates – All updates of taxing entity information will be accessible from one location.
- Flexible access & Easy Integration – Allocator Agent Service is compatible with any client operating system and a variety of web services. The services is accessed via HTTPS and returns data in XML format.
- Specific Information – Allocator Agent provides up to date information as needed for such applicable items as taxing jurisdiction, tax rates, LGT-142 credit, tax code descriptions, effective tax rates.